

THE ADVENTURES OF AQUA-FREEZE

Martina Colaneri

The crystal cave

CHAPTER 1

“This is amazing,” whispered Ivy. Powwwww,powwwww,powww, the feet of Ivy echoed the sound of her toes. She found the cave on a mysterious mountain. Most of the crystals were blue because of the cave but one was just blue for sure or by itself. She reached for the blue crystal on a rock. At the very second she was one little millimeter away from touching it with the tip of her finger she lunged back and fell. The crystal scraped her on the arm.

Powers!

So after I got scraped in the arm.I went crying home.What?You would too!My mom told me to wash it with water then me and her ate a scrumptious dinner since dad was at work.Finally I went to the bathroom to brush my teeth and to my bedroom to sleep of course.The next morning I went to wash my face and oh my the water froze

I was so frightened.I felt like not just my hands froze my body froze I was that scared!Did I do that I thought of that for like two whole minutes.Then I did a hand gesture and the frozen water turned into bubbles!I was so SCARED and I mean it.Then out of the corner of my eye when I noticed my scrap was glowing.I was furious I didn't understand what was happening I put my hand down in despair with great force. Suddenly a icicle popped out of my hand and slammed into the floor. I screamed. "Honey are you O.K.", asked my mom. "Come up mom" I yelled frantically. In a rush she ran upstairs. "Yes dear" she gave me a worried look. "I have magic powers", I said with such a worried face that my mom laughed to tears "now dear you know I don't like that so why- Ivy interrupted" mom look she turned the water to bubbles and shot an icicle". "Ho-ho-honey this is O.K ju-just calm down calm down", said my mom covering her face for 10 seconds then dragging her hands down her face. She was SCARED! I never saw her scared. It felt bad and weird. Soon we went downstairs. "Howdy", said my dad. "Hi dad", I responded. Mom stared at the ceiling. Startled Dad looked at Mom and asked "Huh? What's the matter?" "Oh nothing." said Mom. I went outside to play after breakfast. I saw a robber take a boy's lunch. Then I yelled "STOP!" He started running towards me when I triped. He got hold of my jacket! Then I turned into the super hero version of me. We started having a fight. I won! Finally, I noticed this weird lady in pink was staring at me. She was staring at me with a newspaper with 2 holes. Then she ran away. I was really amazed. I could use these superpowers any time! I went home for lunch. It was good. I told my parents what happened. My dad looked at me startled with his mouth open. I spent the rest of the day reading some of my books. The next morning when I woke up. I went outside again. When that same lady came at me with a sword made out of rulers. She screamed "AAAAAA!!!! You'll regret this!" Then I shot one of my icicles at the sword and it fell to the ground! I got it as fast as I could. "NOOOO!" She sounded like a baby crying. And then a dinosaur came over and knocked her to the ground!

Then she screamed like a baby again. "I ASKED FOR A COW, NOT A DINOSAUR!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

CHAPTER 3

Some years later

After some years The Lady in Pink became nice and helped me on my adventures. I also named herself Aqua-Freeze and The Lady in Pink named herself The Lady in Green to also help the earth. "Aqua Freeze I found a superhero badge for you" said the Lady in Green. I looked at it I really liked it. "It is really good thanks" I replied. After that I went around the town showing my powers and so did the Green Lady (my assistant). (By the way my mom and dad were really proud of me and the Lady in Green). The Lady in Green showed me her lab and we changed it to an animal shelter. We made up a club named help the world. We have 8 students on Monday, 3 on Tuesday, 3 on Wednesday, 2 on Thursday, 9 on Friday, 20 on Saturday, and 16 on Sunday. Sometimes we invite The Lady in Green for dinner. Did you know The Lady in Green's real name is Maria Willfrone. She used to be a EVIL mad scientist but it does not matter now because she is nice.
