But Steve is set his goal to diamonds. Once he sets it, there will be no resetting his goal till he finishes it. Even though he knows there is a lava pit in the cave Steve is in.

But one thing stood in Steve's way... The Skelcreeper! Steve always knew it was a myth but not for long he heard a noise s"sssss" like a Creeper and clink clink like a skeletons bones. He turned away and looked behind all the rocks but one and he saw no Skelcreeper and nothing but rocks and coal. Steve tripped over a rock and fell into a pit of lava. His pants caught on fire ,then he jumped into the nearest water pit. Steve is starting to get afraid a little bit but then he said to himself "for the diamonds".

SKELCREEP!

Just then Steve looked behind him and saw before him SKELCREEP! ssssssss cling, cling went Skelcreep as they where face to face. Skelcreep shoot a arrow at Steve... Steve dogged the arrow just in time but then Steve lost his balance and climbed up the cave wall then he hit Skelcreep in the face and skelcreep went to the ground.

DIAMONDS!

Steve looked and looked all in and out of the cave. He started to lose hope. He looked behind every single rock but one and then he completely gave up hope. Suddenly, he bumped into a big rock on his way out. He looked behind the huge rock and he was so happy to see before him... DIAMONDS!!!!!!!!!! Steve was so happy he danced around the cave and then mined the DIAMONDS and went home happy.
