To the creator of mine craft,Notch.My parents for sparking my love of the computer, and Discovery tech for supplies,knowledge and fun!

• CHAPTER 1 •

UH OH

This is Eliza's and Steve's family. Except for that guy in the star shirt. He's Uncle Larry. The guy with the farmer getup and the girl doctor is their Mom and Dad. You notice their all playing the computer. This isn't a rare sight. This is a normal day, minus Larry. "I am so gonna beat you!" Steve said, his tongue stuck out in concentration. "No fair you logged out!" Steve over to his sister."Eliza?"She wasn't there! Suddenly,he felt like he was sick,Joe was hurtling through thin air!Then he stopped.He looked up,UH OH.....

KITTY ?

Eliza did not like creepers that much in real life, but when she came face to face with one in the game she was terrified. All of her 7 years of playing mine craft kicked in when she heard that hissing sound. RUN!! Sss...BOOM! The Creeper exploded far away from her. Panting (oddly) Eliza looked at herself. She was all white, except for her jeans. Wait... pointy ears, tail?!?! Eliza was a cat in jeans!" "Hey sis, I'm a squid!" Steve's voice rang right beside her. "Steve!" Eliza looked at her brother. He was! "What are we going to do?" He said. "I can help you" The pair turned around, the voice was a villager! "I didn't know villagers could talk" Steve said. "Notch did that so we wouldn't give away secrets. Anyway, there is a portal to get you back to huemaen world." The villager said. "You mean human." Eliza corrected. "Whatever! Where's the portal?" Steve really wanted to get home! "Why," the villager said with a smile, "It's right behind...."

• CHAPTER 3 •

HOME?

“you! HA HA!!!”the villager said while running far way from Eliza and Steve. With silent fury, the pair turned around. How could I have been so stupid?!?! Eliza thought. It was right behind us!” Race you!” Steve said, loudly. The siblings raced off toward the portal. “Mom!” Eliza said, “We’re home!” Eliza’s mother gave her a puzzled look. “Of course you’re home”Steve whispered in her ear,”It must have been a time freezer portal”.

The repair man came 15 minutes after they had gone through the portal.Eliza had called him as soon as she had her phone.The computer had to be fixed!But, as Eliza and Steve were finishing their dinner, they heard a muffled, “AAAH!!!” The two siblings raced to Eliza and Steve’s room, but it was too late, the repair man was gone.

MEET THE AUTHOR

Elizabeth is an inspired writer and junior poet. She devours books like cake. The near-Fifth grader has traveled to 4 different countries. She enjoys computer time and reading on her window seat. Also, she has an adorable but cranky cat and the cutest, lovable, and sweetest dog around. The Native North Carolinian does hope to be a writer or poet. She has a very strong sweet tooth. Her school, Morrisville elementary has been ever so kind to offer her the AIGs. Finally, Elizabeth has enjoyed her time at Discovery Tech and wishes to say thank you to them.
