THE THIEF

This is Jack. This story happened in the fall He enjoys going to the woods and spending time in his house. Jack is 10. The woods is near his house. He likes patterns and his favorite colors are red and white. It was his idea to design this house. Jack also enjoys hiking and adventures.

This is the woods behind his house. There are a lot of mountains around and lots of deers. Jack likes to go there to explore and he likes to go to some dangerous places.

JACK AND THE THIEF

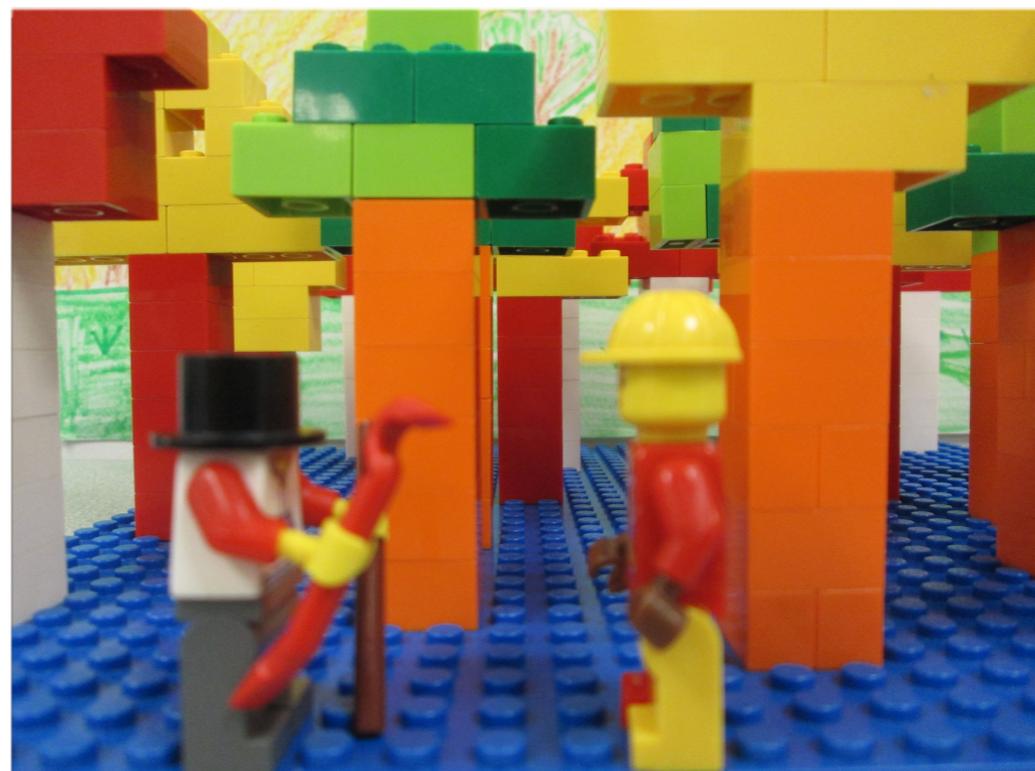

One day while he was walking through the woods, Jack heard a lots of noises. They sounded like deer and mountain lions. Since he goes to the woods almost every morning, he wasn't scared.

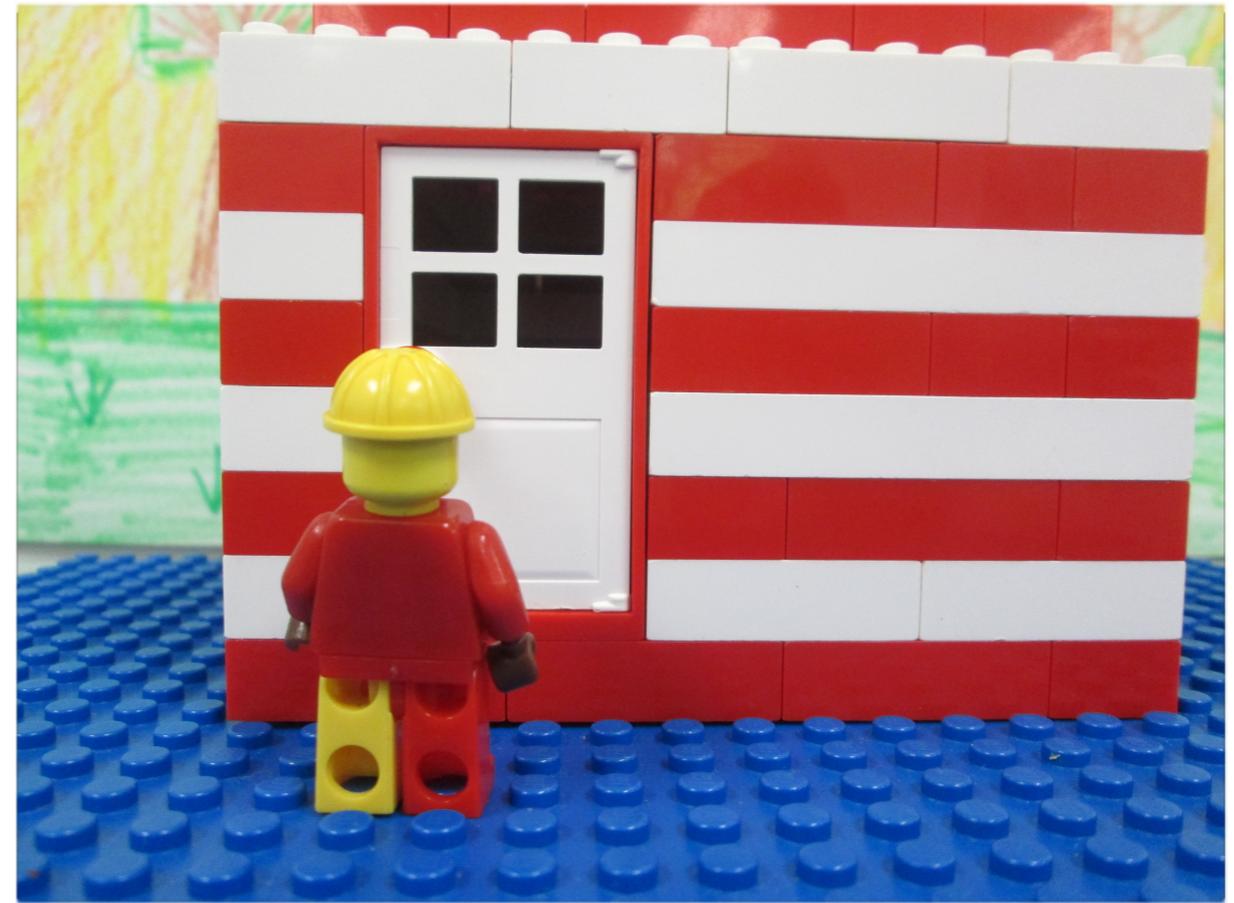

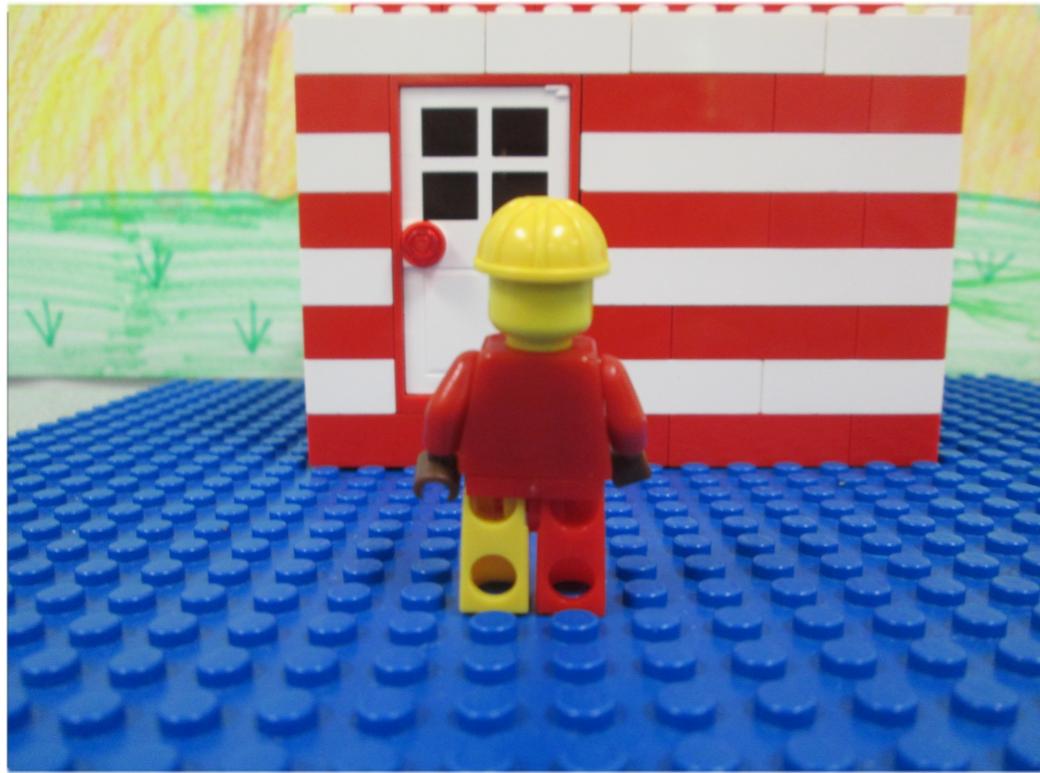

Suddenly, Jack heard something that sounded like footsteps. He stopped and looked around and then he saw a person right in front of him.

The thief was right in front of him, and he said “come with me.” “No,” Jack said. Then the thief got really mad. He said really loud “Come!” Jack got really sad he did not know what to do so he said fine. The thief got really happy. He took his hand. And put him in the cave.

After three weeks, Jack broke out of the cave. He used the moment when the thief was in the forest looking for other people. He ran home, but while running he noticed the robber. Jack quickly ran into his house and that is where he stayed and lived happily ever after.
