Hello, my name is Whirlgirl.

Hi, my name was not always a Whirlgirl. It was Sally. Sally loved to tell jokes. She laughed when her mom tickled her. Her friends were Victoria and Violet. Her favorite thing to do was to fly. She got the new cape and she loved to pretend that she can fly. She liked to help people have parties. Sally loved to teach other people to whirl hula hoops.

Spelling Bee

Sally also was very good at spelling words and was competing in the spelling bee. When it was her turn, the word she was supposed to spell was: superfragalisticexpialidocious. When she started spelling, she heard music, then rumbling. Saying that word was magical. She noticed she could fly because she jumped and she was whirling high. She won the spelling bee and was surprised because she didn't get a medal - it was a big word for her to spell. eavesdrop on crime. She would lie to her parents like saying "I have to do a play at school" but she was really fighting crime. She became a super hero because the people were tired of crime. They use their powers because to stop crime.

She uses her powers to rescue people if they fall on the road. She also uses her power to help people if they rob a bank. She has to use her powers to whirl if they fall on the road. One time she saw a girl on news. She was in a hole. So Whirlgirl whirled to her and took her out of the hole.

One time a person was robbing a bank. It came on news. Whirlgirl stopped him. He wanted to rob the bank because he could buy jewelry. His name is Tim. So he put the money back in the bank.

He went to jail because he stole money. Whirlgirl went back home and took a rest. Then she woke up. The next day she saw somebody selling her favorite toy which was a whirl wand.

Untitled

When she bought it, she used it to help everyone in need.

Soon, everyone in town new about the girl who saves people.

The Whirlgirl wanted to stay as is all her life.

When she missed her home, she would just go to visit her parents.

She kept on playing and playing with them.

This is the story. One day I saw a tornado. It took me to Saturn. So these 2 aliens said "your at Saturn". I was eavesdropping on them. Then we had a fight. Next I saw a tornado. It took me back to earth.
