I would like to dedicate this book to discovery tech.

the beginning

Once there lived an adventurer. his name was dan lego he would adventure everywhere. but then one day he went to a place that had never been seen. the next day nobody could find him in the cave that he went into. about 2 years later his 11 year old son Isaac lego went to find his father.

First Isaac searched his father's office for any thing that might help him find his father. he found his father's journal and a map. he read the last thing his father wrote it said i Am going somewhere far from here i marked it an my map so if i get lost someone can find me also i have heard that many magical creatures live where I am headed. - Dan Lego. then Isaac new what to do.

He started to follow the map he went out of his village and into the forest were many creatures live. once he was deep in the forest he came across a giant wasp that was two times his size!

THE FOREST.

Isaac ran as fast as he could then he tripped on a tree root and fell over the wasp was right on top of him then the wasp tried to kill Isaac by trying to stab him with its stinger. Isaac got up quickly and started running again. he got away from the wasp and started setting up a camp in the forest.

He made a fire and hoped that he would find his lost father the next day Isaac kept walking for days through the forest only to find more creatures some were nice some were bad. then that night there was a loud bang i n the woods! Isaac woke up so fast you could not say i faster. he was face to face withe what seemed like a giant red human with black armor and cannons for arms. Isaac reached for his knife and stabbed the creature in the face. He left running.

THE MAZE.

Then Isaac was standing at the entrance of the maze. Isaac walked in and started to travel through the maze. Isaac was deep in the maze when he heard foot steps. then Isaac was face to face with his father. his father reconized Isaac and said “I new you would find me.” Isaac told his father he new the way out. Then they heard a giant stomp! it was the monster from before! they both ran through the maze and went into the forest running as fast as they could! about 1 hour later they were at the village! Everyone was glad to see him back. after that Isaac became an adventurer.

Hi my name is Jack author of this short adventure book.

The picture above is the maze Isaac's father was trapped in. there is a lego minifigure in the back of the maze. that is Isaacs father. hope you enjoyed this adventure story about an adventurer and his son.
