

By: Anahita Chemparathy

KIDNAPPED

• Copyright •

© Copyright by Anahita
and Aayush

• Dedication •

This book is dedicated to my family

Anahita

• CHAPTER 1 •

JACK

Jack is a 10 year old boy who likes to walk in the forest. He likes the colors red and white so he told someone else to build his house this way. His favorite food is pizza. His part time job is a firefighter. Since he is very smart he skipped many grades and is already in high school. His family died when he was 8, so he lives alone.

This is a picture of Jack's house in front of the forest.

THE WALK

One fall morning he went to the forest like he always does but this time it was different. It was colder than usual but also he saw someone. He had a weapons in both of his hands and he had a tall hat on him so no one can see his face. "Come with me or I will kill you," the thief threatened. "Ok," Jack with fear. So Jack followed him to the end of the forest where he never went before.

• CHAPTER 3 •

THE CAVE

The thief took him to a cave with a lot of spider webs and put him on a chair and went leaving the entrance open. So when the thief was out of sight Jack quietly slipped out and went into the forest.

BACK TO THE FOREST

When he got out of the cave he was unsure if he would have to go back to the creepy caves. But once he got closer to his house he felt better. Then the forest was behind him and he was near his house.

BACK HOME

Then he was in front of his house and he ran to it and got inside. From then on he never went to the woods and never told anyone about what happened in the woods.

THE END

About the Author

My name is Anahita and I am a fourth grader. I made this story in Discovery Tech. I like to draw, read, and build houses with legos. My brother, Aayush helped me with this story.