A ROCK A STICK AND A TREE

Once upon a time there was a man named Leedle... or thats what he called him self. He lives in the woods in a log cabin he found and is best friends with a rock a stick and a tree. If you couldn't already tell Leedle is not very bright, but thats ok because he raised himself. He is now 58 years old.

THE HOLE

One day he was walking along singing his favorite song: “I like holes yes I like holes”. He was walking for quite some time singing his song when suddenly he saw the deepest hole he ever saw. Little did he know it was the deepest hole on the earth! Next to the hole he found a rock that reminded him of his friend the rock. He went to pick it up so his rock would have a playmate but accidentally tripped over it which sent him plummeting into the hole! He felt as if all his internals were about to come out of his mouth. If you’ve ever went on a roller coaster imagine yourself going down a huge hill on it and imagine that feeling. Thats how Leedle felt as he was falling. But it continued for 7 and a half hours!

THE CAVE

When he finally landed it was in a pool of water . He was so relieved he didn't die from that fall. Good thing he brought his flash light. He looked around and noticed he was in a hallway like cave.

The Genie

He saw a can of soda on the ground and was quite thirsty so he picked it up but when he was going to drink it a genie came out! “Why did you come out of my soda man?” said Leedle. I will grant you 3 wishes for awakening me! Ok said Leedle. Oh oh I wish I had 2 wishes!! Said Leedle. “Wow umm ok,” said the genie. And I wish my friend rock was with me too! Seriously man out of everything you want a stupid rock?! Fine! Said the genie and Leedles rock was with him. YAAAAAY! Said Leedle. Ok that’s it you are so stupid you shouldn’t even be able to get another wish!

THE DEMISE OF THE GENIE

Man! I just wish people like you were never alive! Said the genie. Thats it you deserve this said Leedle. I wish you EXPLODED!!! Said Leedle. Oh n-----
BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM!!!! The explosion sent Leedle and his friend the rock flying out of the deep hole! Thud!! They slammed into the ground completely unharmed. Because everybody knows are friend the rock is nuclear resistant. Woooo.. That was quite the adventure said Leedle. THE END

About The Author

My name is Ethan Fowler and I write books sometimes. I enjoy playing video by Nintendo and I also enjoy independent games. My favorite show is a anime called one piece. I live with my mom, dad, sister, dog, cat, and fish. :) I came up with the character Leedle because I was randomly drawing the weirdest faces I could and I made a especially weird one and decided to make a story about him. I named him leedle because I was thinking of random noises! :D
