HOW IT STARTED

• Section 1 •

---

Everything was normal for Lucy up until she was two years old.

Her baby teeth were still coming in, and she could say, "mommy!" and, "daddy!". She could even swim at that age. She was a normal, average baby.

She couldn't really talk yet but she loved to run around the house. Although she couldn't talk much, her parents had figured out how to understand her babbles and cries.

LUCY BECOMES RESTRIKE

When Lucy was two, her parents were kidnapped by Redtrap. By then, Redtrap had stolen $100,000,000 and robbed 10,000 banks.

Her mom was playing with Lucy when Redtrap broke down the door. He grabbed her mom and dad by their arms and took them away, while Lucy was hiding behind the chair.

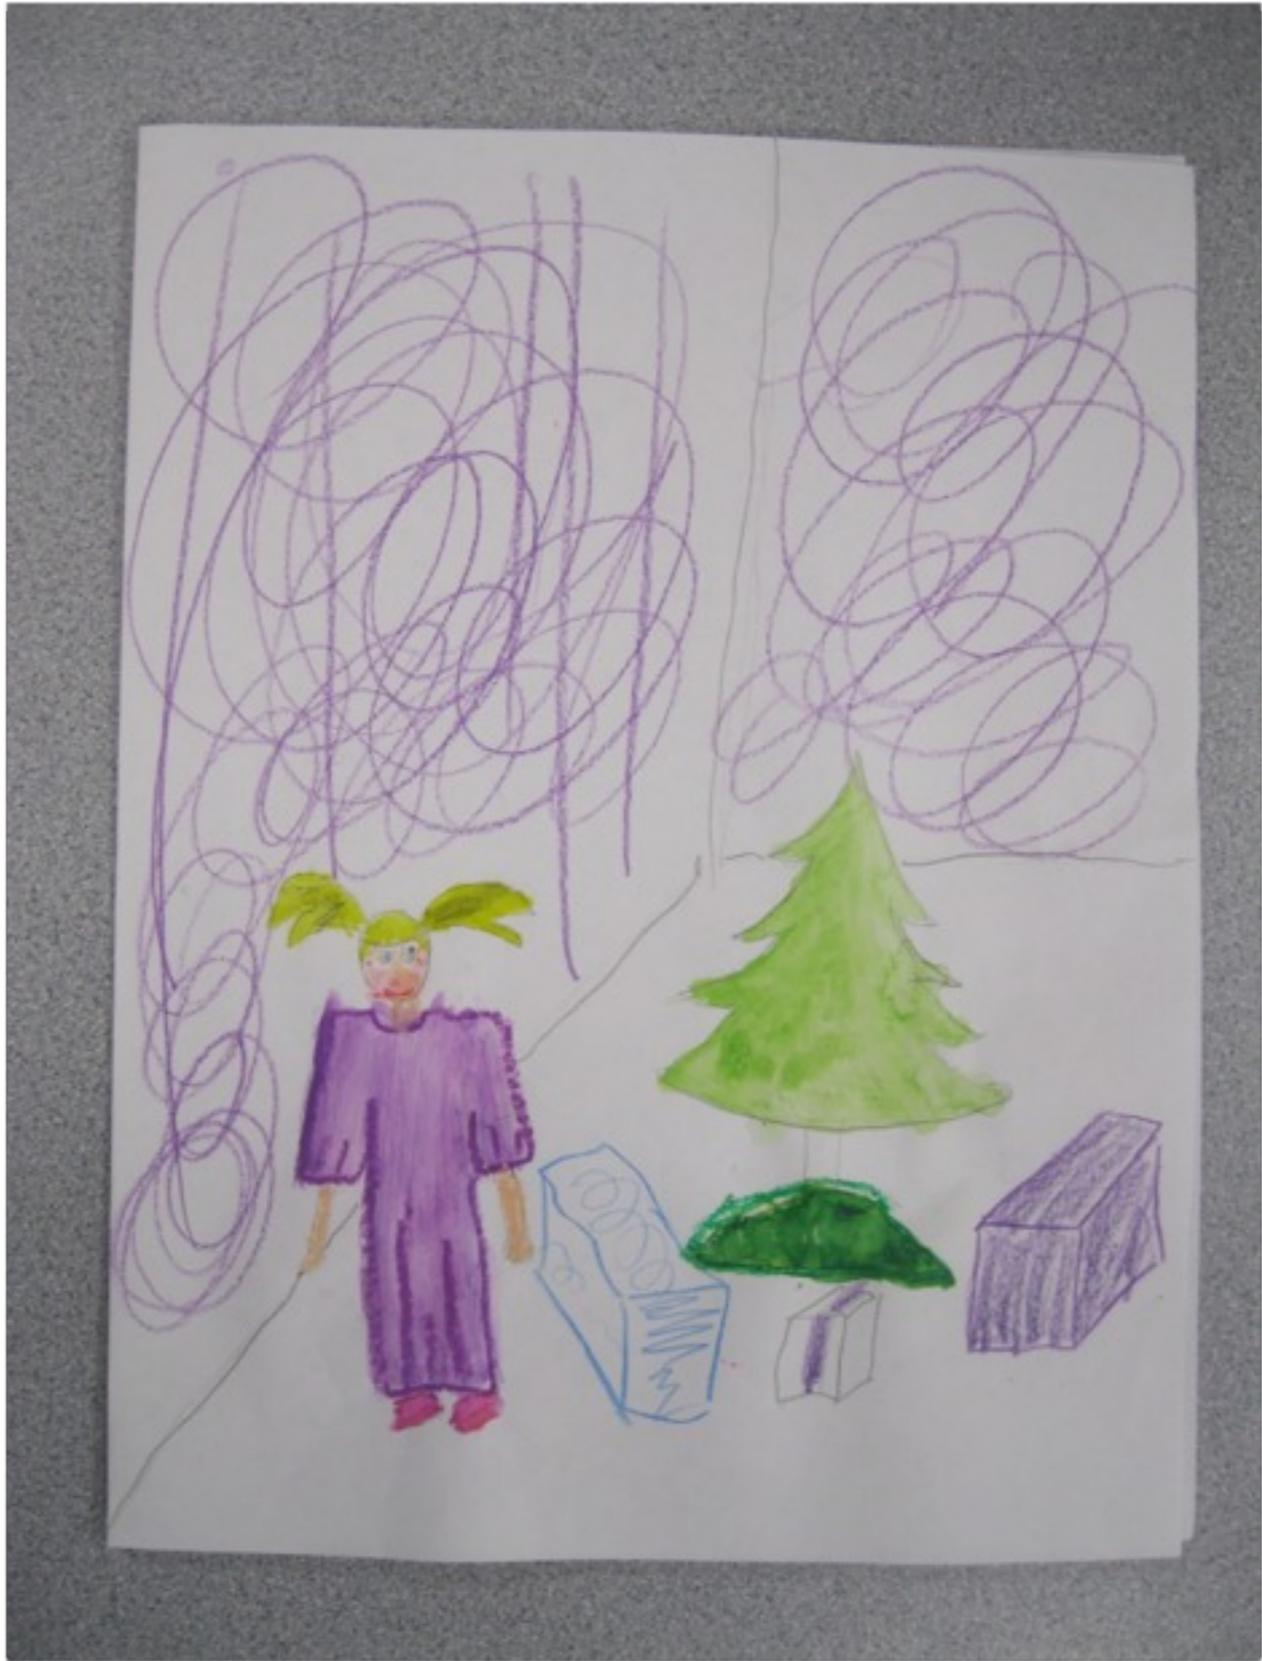

• Section 1 •

When Lucy was four, she decided she wanted revenge. Revenge on Redtrap. Revenge on all the bad people in the world.

When she was six, she got her first set of tools as a Christmas gift from the people who adopted her. She started building things immediately, and soon, they got her electricity and plumbing sets. She built an interactive dollhouse, which was all she needed to get started.

RESTRIKE CATCHES REDTRAP

One evening, Restrike was in her workshop putting the final touches on a super electromagnet. She hoped to pull all the nails bolts and screws out of Redtrap's motorcycle.

• How everything ended •

Restrike was just finishing up when she saw Redtrap's red motorcycle whizzing by. She jumped onto her own motorcycle and, bringing her electromagnet, she chased Redtrap down the street.

When she caught up with Redtrap, she aimed her electromagnet. Then, at the push of the button all the nails and screws from the motorcycle came flying towards the electromagnet.

Redtrap fell to the ground, and Restrike put him in handcuffs and brought him to the police.
