To my mom and dad, for giving me such a creative mind to make this story.

This is Marshall. He has courage, bravery, and all the qualities a good adventurer needs. He explores with his friend, Liam, and they are top-explorers.

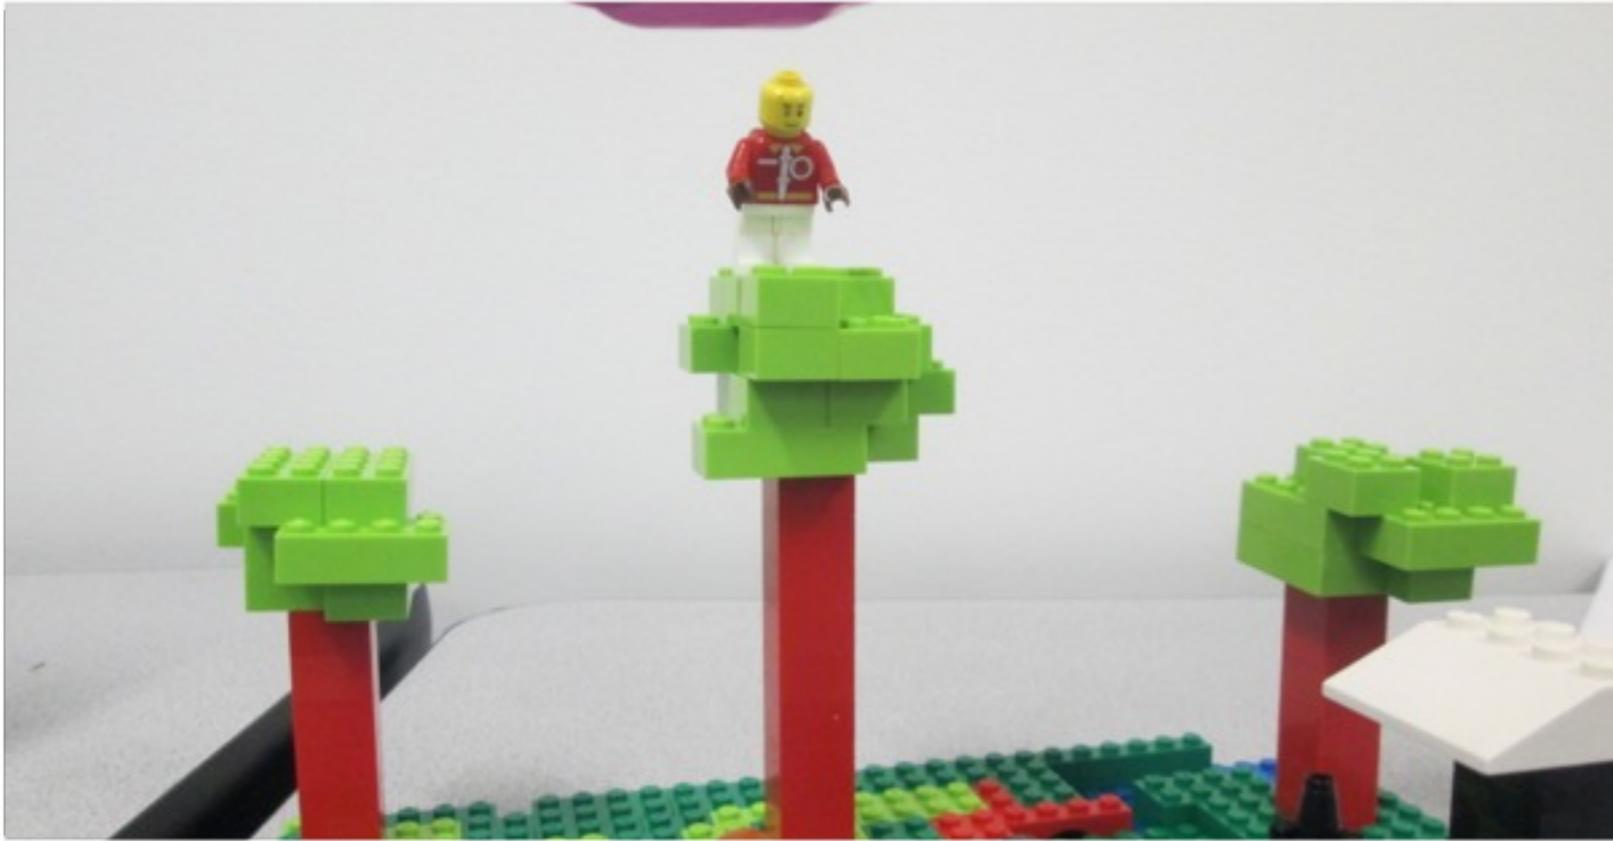

This is Liam. He's an explorer too. He and Marshall have explored the highest mountains, the deepest caves, and everything no one, I mean no one has ever explored.

SAILING TO ADVENTURE

One day, two explorers named Marshall and Liam, went sailing to the jungle, far off of the coast of the Brazilian coastline. They wanted to be the first to explore the mysterious, unexplored jungle.

THE TARZANIUM

When the explorers hit shore, they got out onto the mysterious jungle. Then they looked up and saw none other than... Tarzan! Marshall asked him about the jungle, and Tarzan answered all the questions. And, he agreed to help the explorers on their adventure to explore the jungle.

THE EVIL SPIRIT OF THE JUNGLE

Later, the three ran into something dark... very dark. It had long arms, that were certainly un-human. It was... the Evil Spirit of the Jungle, and it had trapped a giant tiger! Tarzan threw vines at it and Marshall and Liam pulled the Evil Spirit to the ground. Then it disappeared, and the jungle was saved! Marshall and Liam saved it!

Just so you know, this is not continuing the mysterious jungle. This is a new story. It's about a guy named Dave who ended up like this. Dave was seriously injured when he ended up in the propeller of a boat (ouch!). Want to know how he ended up like this? Lets go back.

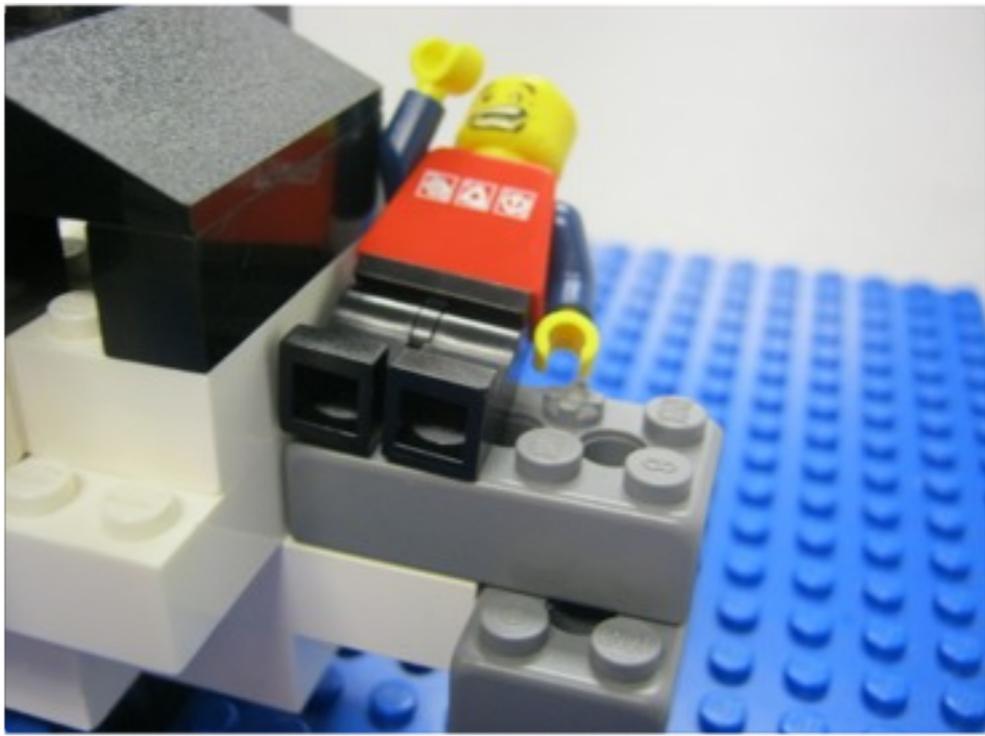

Dave dropped out of school when he was 9. His parents could do nothing about it. They sent him to fishermen school insted, because that was about the only job he could get. He was in fisherman school for only 5 days and failed all his tests. He was now a fisherman! He went to fish on a boat like this one.

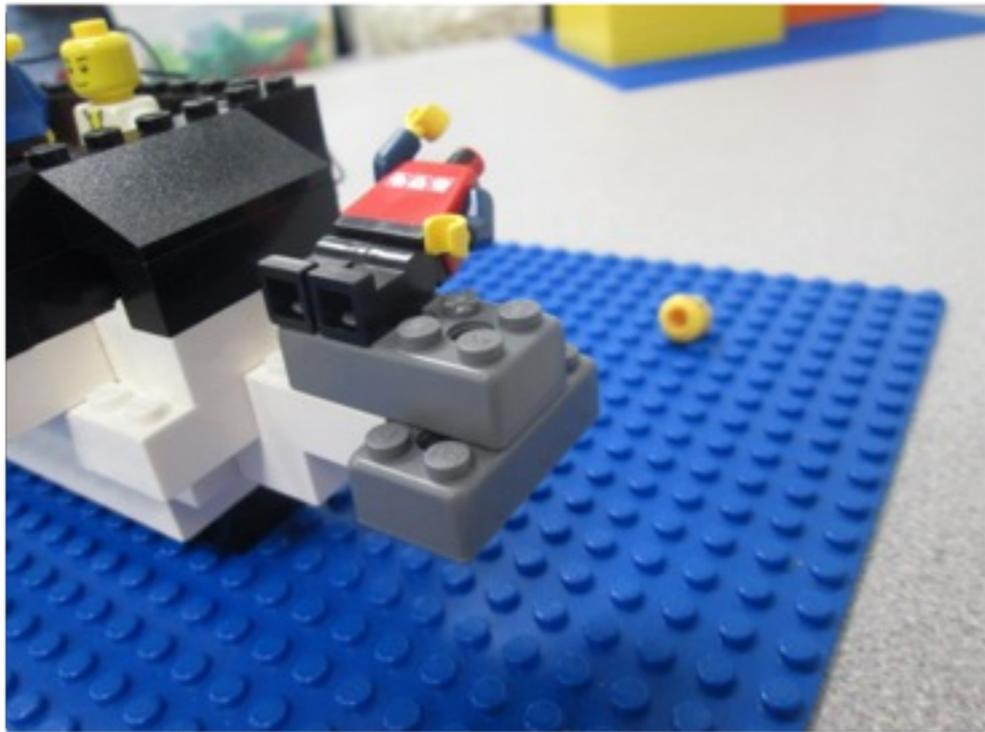

This was Dave's crew. Of course, they had dropped out of school too. The only difference was their age. Most of these dummies were 30-40, and had been a couch potato at home for 10 years. Now Dave was only 11, so he had less intelligence than any one on the boat. But that didn't matter now, he had to start fishing. He got his pole out and started.

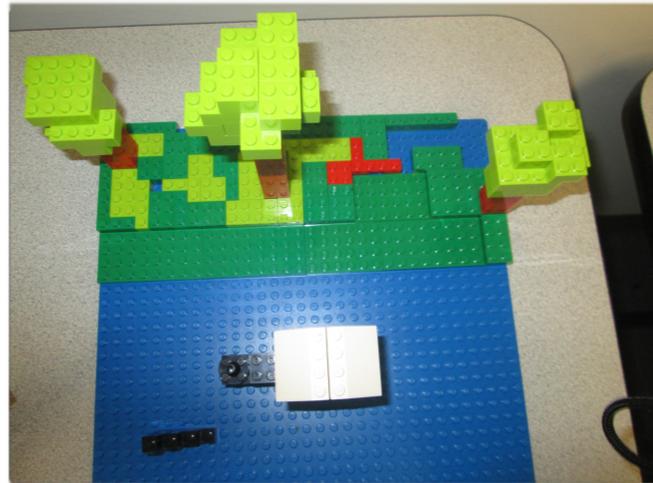

Note: These fishermen were so dumb, that some of their heads fall off. Weird huh?

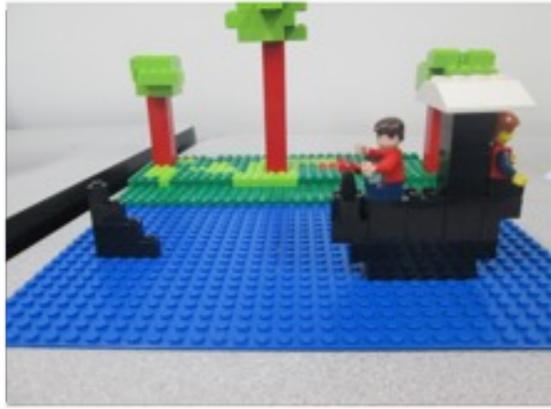

Now, about how Dave ended up in this position. Well, when he was fishing, he was facing the back of the boat. He waited, and waited, and waited. He was about to give up when, his pole was pulling. He had caught a fish! The fish was too strong for him, and he fell over the boat and onto a running propeller! That how he got in this position, and then...

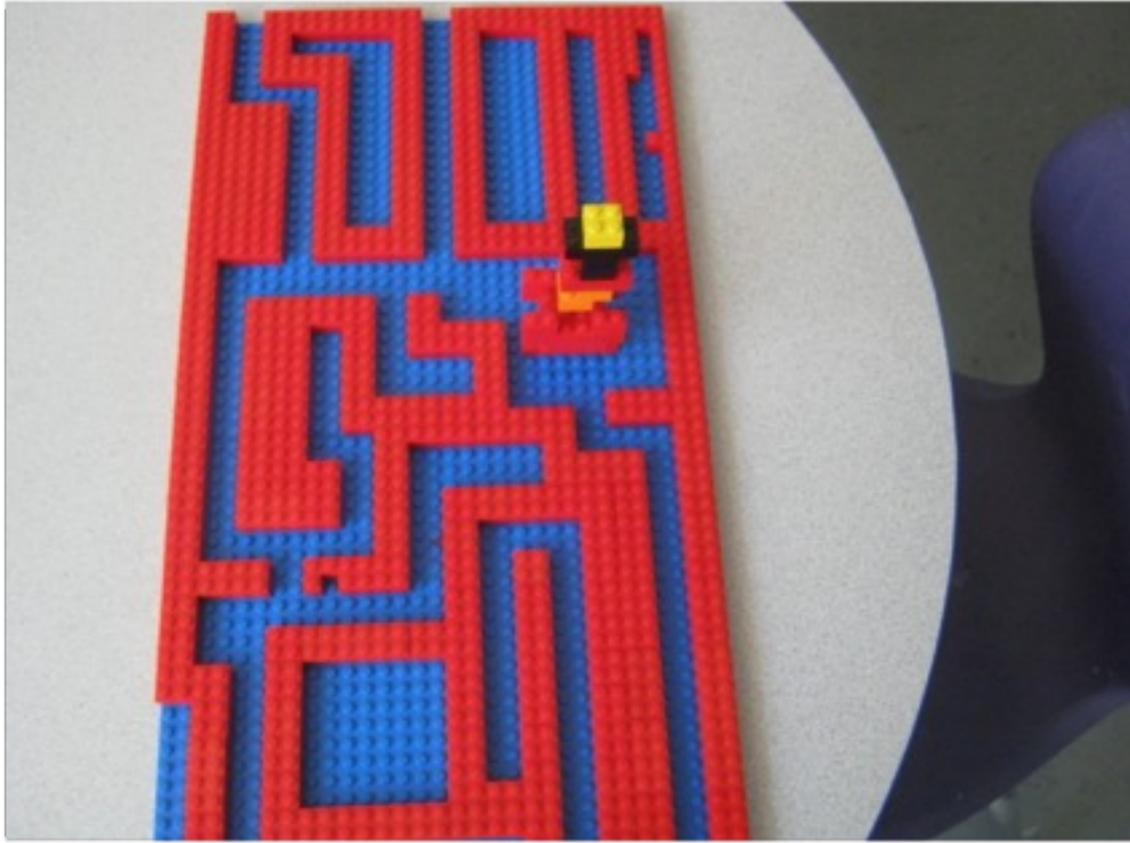

This happened. God bless you Dave (See? These fishermen's heads keep falling off!).

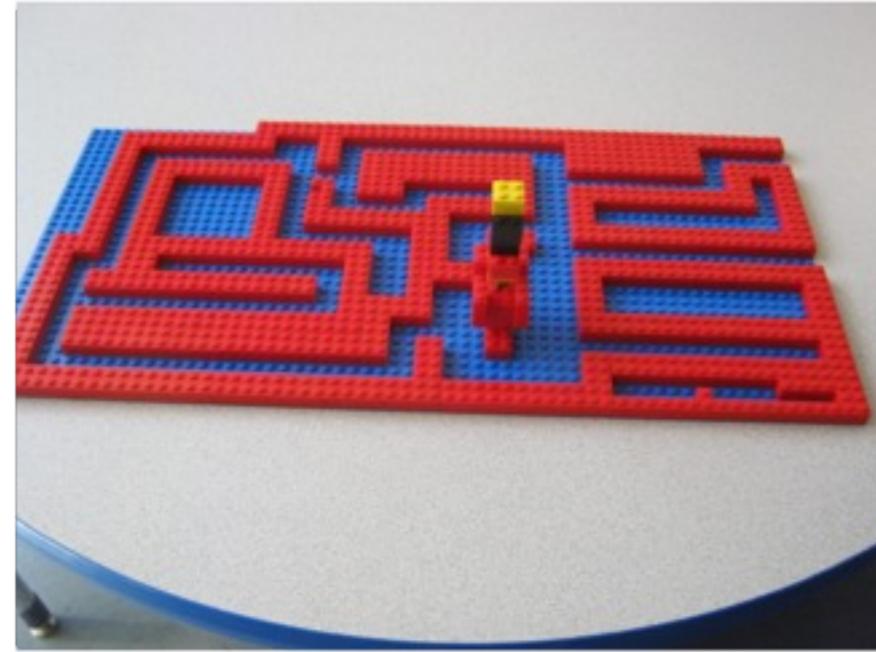

These were all the pictures used for The Mysterious Jungle.

This is my maze. Me and my partner tried to confuse people, because mazes have one start at one side, and an end at another side. But the end is actually right next to the start! And there's a tower with a person on top, and a orange flag for people who might get stuck.

My name is Marshall. I built this maze with my partner, Jack. I am 11 years old, and in 5th grade. I love legos, video games, and playing with my friends. I had so much fun a Discovery Ed, and would recommend it to anyone.
